Topi Shukla-Rāhī Māsūma Razā 2005 Set in Aligarh in the early 1960s, after the dust of Partition has ostensibly settled, Topi Shukla is an intriguing story of two friends-one Hindu and the other Muslim. Through the characters of people like Topi and Iffan, the novel looks at the lives of ordinary prople trying to survive in asocieyt that insists on a brutal conformity of beahviour. It is about individuals whose spirits are paralysed because they cannot conform, and about history's inability to teach mankind any worthwhile lessons. Language plays an important part in this narrative, operating almost as a character in itsown right. Topi, as a Hindi bull in the Urdu china shop, invokes the historical stand-off between the two languages. The novel also explores the culture and psyche of Uttar Pradesh withits very Muslim Aligarh, its very Hindu Benares, and their exotic confluence in Lucknow. Although it is set in theIndia of the 1960s, the communal tensions and issues portrayed in the novel make it just a s relevant to the troubled times we face today. This fascinating novel wil be of tremendous interest to the general reader, as well as to students of literature in translation, partition fiction, and socialhistory. The novel's engagement with intertextuality and metafiction will add to its interest for readers keen on literary theroy.
